Donna Mary Murray

The woman you see has glimpses of who she used to be
The funny look with a twisted smile
The quick comment of thoughts for a short while Busy has always been her creed
And certainly to aide someone in need.
You see, she put others first
And thought not of her needs
Whether food or thirst,
A buck here or buck there to serve as seeds.
She knew the word sacrifice very well,
She lived it daily, in most everything she did
Not a complaint was heard , only if a good deed not accepted.
She was willing to watch children ,
While others went and "played"-
All she wanted was to fish or relax in the shade(legs in the sun)
She did not have the fancy things of life and this was just fine
Because she knew of the riches she held
In the grandchildren (give or take about 29)
She taught us how important Jesus was in our life
She dedicated her life to carrying on his mission
By the way she served her church, family and friends.
She did not serve the rich and haughty
But the lowly and forgotten.
She said she always had the best retirement you could have,
Because she worked for the Lord and her reward is heaven.
So, when you see Donna busy as a bee
Or maybe catching some zzzzzzzzzzzzz
You are watching one of God's angels
Whose life has touched many a soul.

Your loving son,
Ron
July, 2006